Matt, Tom and Tord

(because they're 70% awesome)

Introduction and stuff

Hello there person-who-is-reading-my-book! Thanks for buying my book, or if you didn't buy it then thanks for nothing! This is basically just a kind of summary of what you'll find within the nonsensical pages of this book and the little details and yadda yadda boring stuff.

And so yeah, here we are.. the first compilation book of comics i've ever put together! You can find every comic from #20 to #101 in here, oldest to the latest. Now, to be brutally honest and as some of you who have seen my comics before will know, most of my comics are known for containing puns because well, I like puns... But there are also a number of surprises thrown in there too. So hopefully there's something in here that everyone can enjoy or maybe even chuckle at.

Theres a few of you who may also notice the art style steadily progresses towards the end, largely because i like to subtley experiment with my drawings, but also because the earlier comics in this anthology are quite old! Sometimes the new changes stick, sometimes they don't. But hopefully now you won't think your book is somehow defective when flicking through!

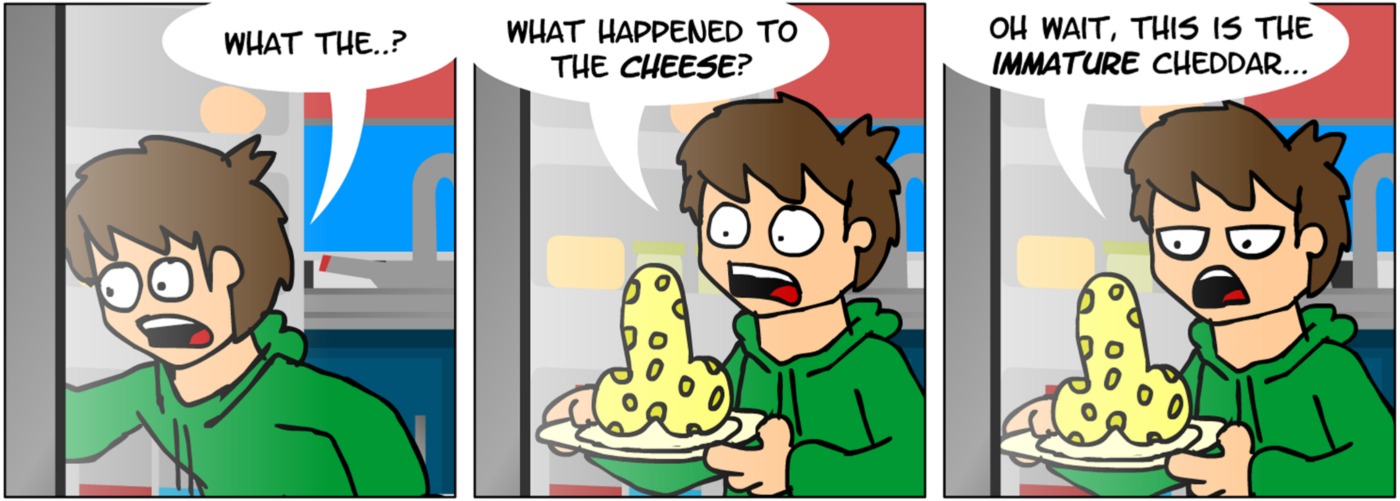

So now just a message to any fans who are reading this, it really means a lot to have you guys supporting what I do, even if it is just random things I post online that i make in my spare time. The fact there are people that actually look forward to stuff I am making, really makes creating that stuff all that more worth while.

So yeah, we need to think of some kind of story arch
What do you mean?
Like a short story that starts with something plot developing-
RRRRRRRRRRRRRF
CRASH
...That'll work

TO BE CONCLUDED...
EDDSWORLD

So what have you and Matt been doing while i was in Hospital?
Well, we found a treasure map by the river and followed it on a journey across the moors of Scotland meeting a variety of foes, all of which were after the map. But after much hardship we finally discovered the true treasure was the lessons we learned on the path to the treasure.
That sounds like a much more intresting story arc than me being in hospital
Really? It was kind of boring

Edd, What do you want for your birthday?
A new PC with Quad core processors, a 4 Megabyte Cache, a decent graphics card, Six USB ports, 4 Gigabytes of RAM and a 500 Gigabyte Hard drive. Topped off with a DVD Rewriter, Media card reader and a new mouse and keyboard.
How about a tie that looks like a fish?
Uh, that would be good too

Max Gilardi (aka HotDiggedyDemon) is best known for his flash animation series' such as "Adam Android", "Jerry" and "Wacky Game Jokes 4 Kids!" (which are all amazing) and I have always considered him a constant inspiration ever since I started animating, so it was beyond amazing to see he made a guest strip!

Tyler Legrand is a friend of mine I have known for a looong time, going back to even before I was making eddsworld stuff when all I did was stick figure animations. For some bizarre reason back then we started talking online and well, we're still talking to this day! So as soon as I was putting this book together I immediatley asked if he would like to make a guest comic because, well, he's awesome.

Ian Kelly (aka Psycosis91) has been a good friend of mine for a while now, he has helped me countless times with actionscripting and general flash help. So even though he claims he can't draw, he does have a talent for pixel art, so I felt my comic compilation couldn't be complete unless I included this pixely guest comic from him!

Paul ter Voorde (aka the big eyebrowed guy in most of my animations) is one of my oldest friends I know online, even way before I even thought of eddsworld, he's also one of the most talented. He claims to be jealous of how productive I am with my work, where as I am beyond envious of his god like drawing ability. We've both helped each other over time, he's helped countless times with my animations and comics, so no eddsworld comic collection would be complete without a guest comic from him.

Tord, as people who have been familar with my stuff for a while will know, used to be the fourth member of eddsworld. He left the team two years ago because he wanted to try and make it on his own as an artist, without being tagged as part of eddsworld. I am still very good friends with him and he helps with almost everything i produce on the site in some form or another nowadays. So I thought it would be a nice idea to include this comic by him.

GUEST COMIC BY HELLUCARD

Dom Charbonneau (aka Hellucard or The 'Ey Hed!' guy) is an artist from Canada who I have known for a while now, and a while ago he made this guest comic for me and well, I wanted to include it in the book!

Ross Muggridge (aka h4xninja) made this guest comic last year. Ross is my housemate at university and he is very awesome. Most of the time he is so happy that it's scary.

Stephen Taaffe (aka Bogswallop) is another fellow animator/artist type I know through internetville. He's also incredibley fond of comics and has always been supportive of my comics and stuff - even when they're terrible.

Elizabeth Morgan (aka Leondra) is yet another awesome artist person I happen to be lucky enough to of met online. She has also always been supportive of my work and I always enjoy seeing hers too.
